For this special Valentine's Day concert, award-winning jazz trumpet player Brownman Ali and this aptly named "Love Quartet" will play selections from the great American songbook that feature the word "love" in it's title. Expect to hear Cole Porter's "Love for Sale" & "I Love You", Jimmy Davis' "Lover Man", Isham Jones' "There Is No Greater Love" and Jimmy Van Heusen's "Like Someone In Love" amongst a long list of classics. Widely known for his bombastic and energized style of playing, this is an opportunity to see the softer side of Brownman's abilities, as he leads an all-star quartet through some of the most delicious love-standards in jazz history.
