Celebrate Valentine's Day at Toronto's May Cafe with acclaimed jazz trumpet player Brownman Ali performing only tunes with the word "love" in the title. May Cafe's usual Vietnamese Tapas menu will be in effect to accompany a feature concert by the BROWNMANN LOVE QUARTET featuring Brown teamed with an all star cast of some of the finest young musicians in the city. Recently touring with Missy Elliot & widely known for his bombastic and energized playing style, this is an opportunity to see the softer side of Brownman Ali's abilities this Valentine's Day, as this foursome explore some of the most delicious love-standards in jazz history, playing only tunes with the word "love" in it's title and emphasizing his dark-toned flugelhorn skills. Expect to hear Cole Porter's "Love for Sale" & "I Love You", Jimmy Davis' "Lover Man", Isham Jones' "There Is No Greater Love" and Jimmy Van Heusen's "Like Someone In Love" amongst a long list of classics.
