Splitting his time between Toronto & Brooklyn, NY, BROWNMAN ALI -- 2x National Jazz winner, 6x Global Music Award winner & heralded as "Canada's pre-eminent jazz trumpeter" by the NY Village Voice -- brings his straight-ahead, hard-swinging trio to The Oud & The Fuzz this Thursday Sept 9th. Performing organic jazz in the classic trio setting, this unit strives to embody the jazz improvising spirit of the 50's & 60's -- communication. Expect to hear their interpretations of tunes like "Bye Bye Blackbird", "My Funny Valentine", "Four", and "In Your Own Sweet Way", as Ali takes listeners on a journey through the American Songbook from Miles, to Coltrane, to Duke and back. This permutation of the BROWNMAN AKOUSTIC TRIO features 2 fast-rising young stars under Brown's mentorship: Jack Johnston (19 years old!) on bass and Mateo Mancuso (21 years old) on drums.
